Stage 3 Bathurst Excursion 2022

Dear Parent or Caregiver,

As the culmination of our Semester 1 work on the Establishment of the Australian Colonies, and the impact of events such as the Gold Rush, a 3-day excursion to Bathurst has been organised for Monday 19th September to Wednesday 21st September 2022. This excursion for our Stage 3 students is offered every two years.

The students will be visiting many places including: The Three Sisters, Historic Hartley Court House, State Mine Heritage Park, Bathurst Goldfields, Bathurst Cemetery, Bathurst Sheep and Cattle Drome, The Scenic Railway and Cableway, Students will also take part in activities such as: line dancing, gold panning and colonial music.

The cost of the excursion is estimated to be approximately $420. This includes a seat belted coach, all food (apart from lunch Day 1), entry to attractions and accommodation. As the cost is directly dependent upon the number of students attending, we may not be able to provide refunds for a student's inability to attend. We are asking for payments to be made by the following instalment schedule:

Deposit $100 (Non-refundable)	Friday 24 June, Week 9, Term 2
2 nd Instalment –$150	Friday 5 August, Week 3, Term 3
3 rd Instalment - to be determined according to the confirmed number of students attending	Friday 9 September, Week 7, Term 3

Please note: smaller payments, such as weekly or fortnightly before the due date, will be gratefully accepted.
