HARMONY DAY CELEBRATIONS

Dear Parents and Carers,

Towradgi Public School will be celebrating Harmony Day on Tuesday, 21st March 2023.

As part of our Harmony Day celebrations, students will participate in a variety of cultural activities to celebrate the importance of multiculturalism and inclusivity. Students are invited to wear orange mufti-clothes on the day. A gold coin donation will NOT be required.

Interested students may also like to participate in the Harmony Day Poster and Song Writing Competitions being hosted this month. These competitions are open until 16th April, with the theme 'Living in Harmony' taking the centre focus. Students can create an A3 poster drawing, painting or using mixed media, or create a 2 minute song to the tunes provided at <https://movingforwardtogether.org.au/songwriting-competition/> Cash prizes exist for the winning entries.

Submissions can be posted individually, or by our staff if you require assistance. Further information about the submission process is available at:

- Poster Competition: <https://movingforwardtogether.org.au/entry-form-poster-competition/>

- Song Writing Competition: <https://movingforwardtogether.org.au/entry-form-song-writing-competition/>
