Dear Parents & Carers,

Last week we held our K-2 Literacy Information Session for parents and carers. Based on the positive feedback received, we will be offering a repeat session on Monday 4th April 2022, to allow more parents and carers to attend. This session will commence at 2pm sharp in the school library. This will be the final time this session is offered.

With our K-2 classes embarking on a new Literacy approach this year, this information session will discuss important changes that will affect you and your child as we move towards implementing the new K-2 English Syllabus. During the session, Mrs Harrison will share the following information:

- What the research says about how reading should be taught.
- How reading is taught in a K-2 classroom (including an outline of the literacy block).
- The transition from predictable texts to 'decodable' texts.
- Changes to home reading commencing from Term 2.

Registrations for this session are essential.
